Próximos Pasos project – a vocational initiative to benefit Hogar Altagracia graduates.

Tío Russ: Próximos Pasos (Next Steps) project is named for our late Uncle Russ, who inspired us to strive to make a difference in people's lives and support positive social change. This initiative assists young women who have been abandoned and disadvantaged, in their transition from orphanage to independent life by providing real-world job training after graduation. 100% of these funds raised will allow graduates of Hogar de la Altagracia orphanage in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic to attend vocational and technical training.
